THE

PEDIGREE AND DESCENDANTS

OF

JACOB FORSTER, SEN.,

OF CHARLESTOWN, MASS.

By a tradition which exists in different branches of the family, Reginald Foster, the first of the name, is reputed to have come to this country from Exeter, County Devon, England, and to have crossed the water in one of the ships embargoed by King Charles the First · but of this nothing certain is as yet known.

In the earlier records we find the name spelt indifferently Foster and Forster, — the former spelling being the more common. The "r" has now been entirely dropped, except by the descendants of Jacob Forster, Sen., of Charlestown, Mass., who was the first, I believe, to write the name always in the same manner.

1. Reginald Foster[1] settled in Ipswich, Co. Essex, Massachusetts, about the year 1638, although his name does not appear upon the town records until 1652, when it was "Granted Thomas Clark and Reginal Foster, that when they shall have cut through a passage from this river into Chebacco River of ten feet wide and soe deepe as a lighter may pass through laden, and to make a ford and footebridge over, that then the town have given unto them £10 towards said passage."

His estate is sworn to, 9 June, 1681, as being worth £744. sh. 16. His will, proved on the same date, mentions wife Sarah, the children given below, and shows him to have been the possessor of Plum and Hog Islands, which remained in the family for several generations.

3. Isaac[3] (Reginald,[2] Reginald[1]), of Ipswich. Administration on his estate was granted to son Jonathan, 15 Dec., 1741. (Essex Probate Records, vol. xxiii., p. 41, Estate £124.15.) Jonathan was appointed administrator of the estate of his mother, Abigail, 30 Oct., 1749. (Essex Probate Records, vol. xxix., p. 28.) The signatures and other evidence show that these two Jonathans are the same person, and consequently son of Isaac and Abigail. As I intend to trace through the son Jacob, it seems necessary that I should give my authority for considering him a son of Isaac, as there appears to be no record of his birth extant.

Among the early series of Middlesex Wills are preserved two letters, both addressed to the Honorable Samuel Danforth, Esq., — the first dated 7 March, 1757, and signed Jonathan Foster, in which he speaks of his brother Jacob, of Holliston; the second, dated 18 April, 1757, is signed by Jacob Foster, of Holliston, and mentions his brother Jonathan, of Ipswich. The latter is indorsed "Capt. Jacob Foster's Letter, etc." Jonathan's signature agrees with those on the two letters of administration mentioned above. The children of Isaac and Abigail were, —

Their children were, —
